OCEANIA AIRLINES
Your journey awaits...

Oceania Airlines is the world's largest airline operating in the Oceania region, flying to 58 destinations in 14 countries. Oceania Airlines operates 269 aircraft and is the world's largest operator of the Airbus A380 and Boeing 777 family of aircraft. The airline's luxurious amenities, regionally inspired gourmet cuisine, award-winning in-flight entertainment system - ice - and unmatched hospitality provided by its iconic multi-lingual Cabin Crew from over 70 nationalities have made Oceania Airlines one of the world's most recognized airline brands.

Our first priority is giving you the reassurance that you can fly safe, and fly well, with us. We've been working hard to make sure you'll be as safe and sound as always with us on the ground and in the skies. You can find out more on everything we've been doing and suggest any further suggestions to improve our service to you, so you know what to expect before you fly with us and our partners.

When you book with us, you can do it with confidence that if things change, so can your ticket. You can change the date and travel another time, change your destination, or even change the passenger names if you would like someone else to benefit from your booking.

If you find yourself lost at the airport terminal follow these simple steps or ask one of our world class staff for help

1. Check in for your flight
2. Hand over any luggage that would need to go into the aircraft hold, if you are travelling with luggage
3. Pass through the airport security gates to the departures hall
4. Find your boarding gate
5. Board the plane and fly to your destination

HAWAII

Holidays in Hawaii can be as adventurous or as relaxed as you wish, go from trekking in the jungle to slipping Mai Tai's on the beach in the same afternoon. Island hop, or plan a multi-centre break from Los Angeles – create your unforgettable Hawaiian holiday now.

Head to Kauai, whose spectacular natural wonders will leave you in awe - see Waimea Canyon's cascading waterfalls or go hiking along the Napali coast. On Oahu, combine a poignant visit to the museums of Pearl Harbor with Waikiki's exciting surf scene. Find gourmet treats in Honolulu's cafés and discover vibrant art galleries across the city before setting off on a bar crawl in the Hawaiian capital.

Fiji

Fiji puts all the blissful benefits of an exotic South Pacific getaway – secluded palm-lined beaches; luxurious private islands, spas, and resorts; sparkling water as far as the eye can see – all within easy reach.

Fiji is filled with adrenaline pumping adventure experiences. Tackle Class II and III rapids on a wild whitewater rafting trip through the narrow canyons and lush rainforest of the Upper Navua River gorge. Dozens of waterfalls line the route, which cuts through Viti Levu's unspoiled wilderness interior. Or, explore the island's interior by land on The Full Monty, a five-day, village-to-village hike led by sustainable tour outfitter Tatanoa Treks. The rugged excursion includes summitting Mt. Tomaniwa, Fiji's highest peak at 4,340 feet.

AUSTRALIA

Australia is one of those destinations that seems designed with the adventurous traveller in mind. Despite its populous cities, huge swathes of the country remain wild, simply begging to be explored. From the sun-baked Australian Outback (home of the iconic Uluru, or Ayers Rock) to the ocean depths surrounding the Great Barrier Reef and the trails of the Daintree Rainforest, the world's oldest surviving rainforest.

Because Australia has a vast, wild interior, most of the urban activity is concentrated on the coast. Sydney's vibrant harbour scene, Melbourne's cosmopolitan lifestyle, and Perth's proximity to the ocean provide a variety of experiences. Add the sunny climate and golden beaches, and it's no wonder that more than 1.5 million expats currently call this city home.

NEW ZEALAND

New Zealand is a relatively small country consisting of two islands – north and south – with more sheep than people, but it's still a fantastic destination. New Zealand citizens (nicknamed "Kiwis") are open, friendly, and perpetually looking to have a good time, happy to share their knowledge with tourists or offer to sit and chat at one of the well-appointed lounges in Auckland and beyond.

And despite its deserved reputation for ruggedness, New Zealand offers many quality restaurants featuring the freshest ingredients, along with high-end accommodations that will suit any style. These range from the fanciest hotels in the world to simple but comfortable hostels aimed at the backpacking set who wander the country in search of their next adventure.
